tools4dev

Stakeholder Analysis Matrix

Stakeholder Name	Contacts	Impact of the project	Influence on the project	What is important to the stakeholder?	How could the stakeholder contribute to the project?	How could the stakeholder block the project?	Strategy for engaging the stakeholder
Students & professors of medical faculties	Through Prof. Porras, jari.porras@lut.fi	High	High	Get learning materials	Share learning events	Refuse to use the platform	Promotion using universities' websites, encourage using LERT
SLIPPS EU Project Team	https://www.slipps.eu/, Through Prof. Porras, jari.porras@lut.fi	High	Medium	Educate future experts in the medical field within 3 years Erasmus+ programme	Provide system requirements, test the system and provide feedback on medical terms	Directly expressing the lack of interest in the software project/platform	Requesting regular meetings for updates
LERT Tool & its developer	Jaakko Tuuri, jaakko.tuuri@student.lut.fi	Medium	High	Having users (students) filling in predefined questionnaires and send them to professors for check-up and publishing	Provide questionnaire's format, sample contents, connection gates	Change the questionnaire's format without informing the project team; not maintaining the connection	Regular meetings, stay in close contact

Stakeholder Name	Contacts	Impact of the project	Influence on the project	What is important to the stakeholder?	How could the stakeholder contribute to the project?	How could the stakeholder block the project?	Strategy for engaging the stakeholder
Medical researchers & practicing doctors	-	Medium	Medium	Acquire valuable trusted information to heal patients, spread/increase the knowledge	Share learning experiences	Refuse to use the platform	Promoting the platform using EU SLIPPS Project contacts (website)
Nurses & hospital employees	-	Low	Medium	High level of care for patients, medical expertise	Sharing learning experiences, engage employees in learning by using the platform	-	Promoting the platform using EU SLIPPS Project contacts (website)
Healthcare institutions	-	Low	Medium	Medical expertise	Explore learning experiences to increase quality of services	-	Promoting the platform using EU SLIPPS Project contacts (website)
Universities faculty of medicine	https://www.saimia.fi/haku/fi/syksyn-yhteishaku/amk-tutkinnot/sosiaali-ja-terveysala	Medium	Medium	Educate future experts in the medical field	Engage students and professors in platform use	Forbid students and professors use the platform	Through Prof. Porras, stakeholders are engaged; invite for testing and future cooperation

Stakeholder Name	Contacts	Impact of the project	Influence on the project	What is important to the stakeholder?	How could the stakeholder contribute to the project?	How could the stakeholder block the project?	Strategy for engaging the stakeholder
Governmental healthcare organizations	-	Low	Medium	High quality of healthcare services on average in the country/regions/ cities	Verify the activity and discover bad practices to further check if they are repeated in institutions or hospitals	Forbid the platform according to law incompliance	Promoting the platform using EU SLIPPS Project contacts (website); direct contact and discussions
Healthcare equipment producing companies	-	Low	Medium	Reliability of their products, fault reports, improving the quality of products	Discover misuse of their product or faulty performance for future improvements of products and instructions	Low probability of any blocks, refuse to use the system	Promoting the platform using EU SLIPPS Project (website)
Patients	-	Medium	Low	Get high-quality healthcare services	Discover medical practices which apply to their cases and share the information with their doctors/nurses	Low probability of any blocks; refuse to use the system	Promoting the platform using EU SLIPPS Project (website)